

Fees Tables – Immigration Tribunal appeals (non-asylum cases)

If you wish to appeal against a Home Office visa or immigration decision, I can assist you in a variety of ways. I can advise you on the strengths and weaknesses of your appeal, complete your notice of appeal, help prepare your evidence, represent you at hearings in the Tribunals and advise you on next steps if your appeal is dismissed.

Most appeals are heard within 12 months. Please note that there are very short deadlines for appealing Home Office and Tribunal decisions. It is best to contact my staff or I as soon as possible once you have been sent a Home Office or Tribunal decision.

NOTE 1: All fees are indicative only. Some cases may be complex or require more preparation and this is likely to be reflected in the price agreed with you. All fees will attract VAT where applicable. For more information on whether or not you should pay VAT, please see the guidance from HMRC here.

NOTE 2: The First-tier Tribunal lists more cases than there are Judges. Your appeal may not be heard on the date it is listed and appeals may be postponed at short notice. If I attend a Tribunal for your appeal hearing and the hearing is adjourned, my fees are still payable.

NOTE 3: Additional costs for direct access clients may include payment of a Tribunal fee (currently £140 for an oral hearing or £80 for a paper hearing). Appeals heard outside of London will require my travel expenses to be paid.

NOTE 4: In addition to the above services, I can assist with the drafting of witness statements, client conferences, negotiation or mediation, disclosure, applications, costs and other matters. If you require me to conduct litigation on your behalf, additional fees will apply. Fee quotes are available upon request.
